7 COLLECTION NOTIFICATION STATEMENT

Watsons Bay Boutique Hotel (WBBH) collects personal information from consumers during interactions driven by them via their websites, associated social media platforms, and in person at its venues and other external events. WBBH does not collect personal information from any third party entities. Consumers opt themselves in by entering a promotion and/or becoming a member of our e-newsletter list. Consumer details are collected when consumers enter a competition or promotion administered by WBBH. Information typically collected includes the following; first name, surname, email address, state, country, gender, postcode. Information collected may be used for the following purposes; with express consent to qualify for entry into WBBH administered competition; and with consumers inferred or express consent for marketing and promotional purposes by The Sydney Collective venues. It is unlikely that WBBH will disclose personal information to overseas recipients.

The failure by a consumer to provide personal information sought by WBBH may mean they are ineligible for promotional entry; and may also affect the sale or delivery of goods or services. WBBH aims to maintain the highest level of security across their own servers and only works with reputable third party clients who also maintain a high level of security with personal information collected and stored.

WBBH does not disclose consumer's personal information to third parties except in the event of a promotion or competition where software or suppliers external to the company may be engaged to execute the promotion. In any instance where information is disclosed to third parties, the third party agrees to maintain the confidentiality and security of such information, thus releasing WBBH of any liability.

Please view our Privacy Policy for guidelines on how to obtain access to any personal details WBBH holds, or on how to make a complaint in regards to a breach of privacy. For a full copy of the WBBH Privacy Policy, go to www.watsonsbayhotel.com.au
